Peru Birding Tours

Bird Guide: Jesus Cieza

Day by Day Activities

Day 01 (October 26th)

After setting up the departure time a night before in Cusco, today we started with a long way to Wayquecha Station, but before we stopped at Wacarpay Lake for the endemics bird's species, getting nice shots from Bearded Mountaneer, Rusty Fronted Canastero and a lucky morning with a really close view of Andean Tinamou.

Then we continued our trip to then stopped halfway to get some other birds like Black billed shrike tyrant, Peruvian sierra finch, large group of 6 Andean Flicker (first time I had seen that number). Some others like Bar Winged Cinclodes, Black faced Ibis and Andean Lapwing.

Day 02 (October 27th)

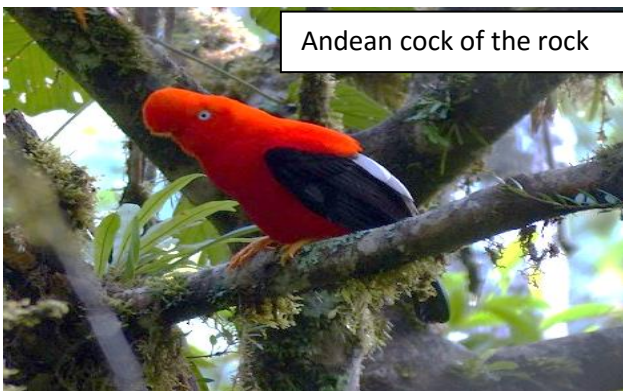

Once at Wayquecha Station we had an early birding start getting some cool birds like Andean Guan, White Throated Hawk, Rufous Capped Thornbill and others to then come back for breakfast packed and be ready for our next stop at Cock of the Rock Lodge, after lunch we went down the road and got some more birds like Golden Headed Quetzal, Barred Parakeet and some others.

Blue Banded Toucanet along the Manu Road

Day 03 (October 28th)

Early birding just around Cock of the Rock Lodge to identify the hummingbird species that come to the feeders and some other birds like Eastern Wood Pewee, Jungas Manakin, buff throated Saltator and we also got a cool view of Small Billed Eleania. We also had the lucky shot of juvenile Black and Chesnut Eagle. That afternoon we visited the popular place for Peru's National Bird, Cock of the Rock Leck getting a nice view and cool pictures of them.
